No more of that fake dancing where people look silly! Time for REEL dancing! Come join The Muses for an evening of Contra, Irish Reel, Scottish Country and Courtly Dancing. The Muses, a nationally touring Celtic band based out of Colorado, will be playing live music and teaching dances. (You don't have to wear a kilt, but it helps.)

Touring again! with a full house!

We are off on the road again to the center of the country after a much needed rest at home. (Not that we rested much, we had a lot to do!) This is a very different tour for us as we have Jessica, our booking agent from Unbound Booking traveling with us as well as her cat Mischief and dog Aslan. For the first few days we also have Sam with us until we drop him off at his home. We have a couple of shows in Kansas, then we are off to Ohio to perform another couple of shows.

Then it's back to Indiana for GenCon Indy! We are very happy to be returning for 3 days to the nation's largest gaming convention. We'll be in the Entertainment Spotlight as well as performing in the halls again. We'll also be hosting a Ceili on Friday evening at 8:00 at the Marriott hotel in Indiana Ballroom E. It is listed as "Celtic Dance Revolution". We hope you'll join us there for dance, music and "good craic" as we say in Ireland.

We're also performing several library shows in Indiana, including returning to the Westfield Library and the Hancock County Library, both of which we have played several times before and are looking forward to returning to.

Next it's off to Kentucky where we'll be performing in an Opera House! The Cynthiana-Harrison County Public Library has gotten use of the Roh's Opera house Theater for our performance this year. (I guess they're tired of trying to squeeze everyone into the library when we come to perform.)

We'll be performing all around the Northeastern Kentucky region through the end of August, including another performance for the Scott County Library at the Cardome Center in Georgetown, KY. We'll then head home with one more brief stop in Kansas to perform so we can rest up a bit before heading back east to New England to catch the Fall Colors.

It was wonderful being home for a little while, and we had a lot of fun while we were there! Check out the BLOG for pictures of our adventures! Also we have been using Twitter, and FaceBook to help keep our fans updated to our escapades, so feel free to look us up there!

Thanks to everyone who participated in Presidential Library Day!

We had about 60 libraries participate that we are aware of. We believe somewhere between 3,000 and 5,000 letters went to the White House to let the President know how important libraries are. (By the way, we sent one too!) We hope that next year's participation will be even larger and that this will become an annual event. Someday we hope it will be to thank the President for ensuring that libraries are well funded and full of people.
