

Hello again!!

October finds us in Massachusetts with all of the glory of fall color. We have 7 shows out here at various libraries over 2 weeks. Then we head for home and a show at Nissi's supper club on October 21st in Lafayette, CO.

Shortly after, we will be in gloriously warm Phoenix, AZ, where we'll be participating in the FAR-West conference. FAR-West stands for Folk Alliance Region-West. This is a gathering of musicians, presenters, Folk DJs, managers, and other industry folks to get together, show off their talents, learn from each other and do some serious networking. We have been chosen to perform at the "Premiere Showcase" on Saturday evening, which is an honor. We're amongst several wonderful musicians who include Wendy Waldman and Jim Photoglo (Writers of "Fishin' in the Dark" by Little Feat) and many other talented people. After, we're spanning the state with a trip up to Holbrook, AZ, then down to Tucson for the Tucson Celtic Festival for the 4th year running. We head out to California for a couple weeks of sunshine before heading home for the holidays. We're looking forward to seeing many of you along the way!

Bus Update –

Unfortunately we will not be able to pick the bus up while we're out here on the east coast. It isn't going to be finished in time. We're very sad about this, but still looking forward to its completion and being able to move in at the end of the year when we'll finally have time to pick it up. Last we heard from the conversion folks, the laminate was going in on the walls and they were getting ready to install everything permanently with its proper covering. Pictures will be put up on the blog, Facebook and MySpace as we get them.

This month we join thousands of music lovers on every continent, ringing the world with a musical affirmation of the oneness of humankind. Our performances throughout October will be part of the 7th Annual Daniel Pearl World Music Days- a global network of concerts that uses the universal language of music to diminish hatred, respect differences, and reach out in global friendship.

Daniel Pearl, the journalist and musician kidnapped and murdered by terrorists in Pakistan was a classically-trained violinist, as well as a fiddler and mandolin player who joined musical groups wherever he traveled. World Music Days commemorates his October 10th birthday and carries on his mission of connecting diverse people through words and music.

We hope you join us in helping to spread "Harmony for Humanity" by attending any live music performance in the month of October. You can find more information about the Daniel Pearl World Music Days and Daniel Pearl at www.DanielPearlMusicDays.org.
